

PRIVACY STATEMENT
THE UNITED GRAND LODGE of NEW SOUTH WALES and the AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

IDENTITY OF THE ORGANISATION

The Privacy Act (Cth.) regulates the collection, security, quality, use and disclosure of personal information. The United Grand Lodge of New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons ('the Grand Lodge') considers that it is subject to the Privacy Act from 21 December 2001.

PURPOSES FOR WHICH INFORMATION IS COLLECTED

Information provided by you to the Grand Lodge will be used by the Grand Lodge in the following ways:

Maintain your individual membership record and a comprehensive membership data base;

provide information to you to enable you to access the services and benefits available to you as a member of the Grand Lodge;

provide your information to Masonic charities that are associated with but not part of the Grand Lodge;

conduct research in order to identify and analyse the ongoing needs of Freemasons and their families, and to identify future potential members, services and benefits.

ORGANISATIONS (OR TYPES OF ORGANISATIONS) TO WHICH PERSONAL INFORMATION IS USUALLY DISCLOSED

Information provided by you to the Grand Lodge may be disclosed to:

all Lodges within this jurisdiction of which you are, or of which you have indicated that you wish to be, a member;

any other Lodge within this jurisdiction making enquiries about you;

The Royal Freemasons' Benevolent Institution of New South Wales;

The Frank Whiddon Masonic Homes;

The Masonic Youth Welfare Fund;

Other Grand Lodges and the governing bodies of other Masonic Orders operating within Australia making enquiries about you; and

Other Grand Lodges (or equivalent) and the governing bodies of other Masonic Orders operating outside Australia making enquiries about you.

CONSEQUENCES IF ALL OR PART OF THE INFORMATION REQUESTED IS NOT PROVIDED

If you choose not to provide your personal information to the Grand Lodge when requested then neither the Grand Lodge nor any other Lodge may be able to provide services to you. If you are interested in joining Freemasonry yet choose not to provide your personal information to the Grand Lodge, your application to join cannot be processed.

ACCESS TO PERSONAL INFORMATION HELD BY THE GRAND LODGE

You have the right to request access to any information held by the Grand Lodge that relates to you and to correct any information that is inaccurate. Any corrections should be advised to the Grand Secretary in writing.

FURTHER INFORMATION

If you require any further information about either the information held by the Grand Lodge which relates to you, or the Grand Lodge's Privacy Policies and Procedures, you should write to:
